

Biography George Abu Al-Zulof, Yemen

Speaker, Round Table: Minors and Death Penalty

He is the Justice for Children Specialist with UNICEF - Yemen. He has a Masters degree in Children's Rights from University of Freiburg in Switzerland and over 15 years of experience in the area of child rights globally and in MENA region. George was the General Director of Defence for Children International / Palestine Section. He wrote lots of research papers, reports and articles on child rights and justice for children issues. George is considered one of the key experts in MENA region in the area of child protection and justice related issues. He played a major role in capacity building and developing child friendly, gender sensitive justice for children systems.