

ALASO ALICE ASIANUT, Uganda

Speaker, Round Table: Regional parliamentary networks in favour of abolition

Born in 1969 in Serere –Uganda, she holds a Masters in Social sector Planning and Management of Makerere University (2007), a Bachelor of Arts in Education Makerere University (1993), a Diploma in Project Planning and Management, and a Certificate in Gender and Development of the Royal Netherlands Tropical institute (KIT) with Makerere University. She is a Member of Parliament from 2001 to date, elected three times to represent the Constituency of Soroti and now Serere Districts. She has wide experience in legislation, oversight, budgeting, representation and networking with civil society. She previously served in the Parliamentary committees of Defense and internal affairs, Appointments committee, HIV/AIDS Committee, Local Governments committee, Social services - Education and Health, Public Accounts. She is currently a member of the Natural resources Committee, and the Human Rights committee of the Parliament of Uganda. She is a member of the Parliamentarians for Global Action Uganda Chapter, and was member of the Parliamentary Commission charged with the Policy mandate for the Parliament of Uganda. She served on the Executive Committee of the Common Wealth Parliamentary Executive Association Uganda Chapter; Founding Vice Chairperson of the Network of African Parliamentarians and Ministers on Maternal Health (NAWMP –U); Chairperson of the Parliamentary Forum on Road safety; A member of Uganda Women Parliamentarians Association UWOPA; a member of the Uganda Parliamentary task force on the Progressive abolition of the Death Penalty; member of the Parliamentary Fora on Quality Education, Oil and gas, Prayer Breakfast; a member of the Parliamentary Pension Scheme, charged with the mandate to oversee members pension interests. She is Secretary General of the Forum for Democratic Change Party from 2005 to date. She was District Gender officer and acting Community Based services coordinator for Soroti District 1997 -2001; and a graduate Teacher (1993-1997).