

Hossein Raeesi, Iran

Speaker, Round Table: Iran & the Death Penalty

Graduate from Shiraz University faculty of Law in 1991 and holds a Master of Criminal Law and Criminology from University of Tehran, he is a defense lawyer specialized in human rights and death penalty cases. He recently relocated to Toronto in Canada due to pressure from the government because of his legal activism, where he continues his academic work. Member of the Human Rights Council and the Bar Association in the province of Fars, he is also the founder of Nedayeh Edalat (Voice of Justice) Legal Association in Shiraz, through which he has been actively involved in training young lawyers and civil society activists in human rights principles.